Work Experience

Delivery Hero, Berlin

Product Designer

March 2022 - Present

- I currently work on the Rider App in the delivery flow domain
- Implemented NFC-enabled card for delivery payment, replacing expensive POS machines
- Enhanced order detail visibility during pickup to reduce wrong order pickups by riders
- Conducted research in four regions, involving 20 riders, to analyse the factors influencing their decision to accept or decline orders. As a result, we compiled a new backlog of features that are now ready to be worked on.
